

This week

The children have worked well on their Sensational sentence starters this week. Most are very clear on what 'Fronted Adverbials' are and have used them in their myth writing sessions in English.

Let's celebrate!

Fine diner: Jake Mann - for polite manners at the dinner table

Proud cloud: Lily Malam - for always making the right choices and being a good role model in Austen Class.

Congratulations to Sapphira and Digby for being elected school council reps for Austen Class

We are teaching the children the cursive script in school. If children are ready, they are now being taught to join some letters.

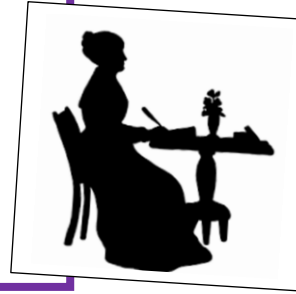

On the back of this newsletter is a copy of our cursive script so that you can reinforce this at home. As you can see very letter starts on the line with a 'tail in' and finishes with a 'tail out' (ready for joining).

See the back of sheet for the cursive script.

Austen class needs your help.

We need a parent helper on Fridays from 11.30 -12.30 to accompany Austen class when they go swimming

We need a few more volunteers for our sewing days on the 11th and 12th October

We need cardboard boxes for our DT project
