

This week

Our highlight of the week was roaring with laughter at our new favourite poet 'Michael Rosen'. We watched some of his hilarious performance poetry online and were in fits of giggles. Our favourite poem was 'Chocolate Cake' Mmmmm!

A special mention to our Proud Cloud this week, Lucia. We are delighted to show case her canvas painting of the school in our corridor. (She also sewed her on dress for Roald Dahl Day – Wow!) Our Fine Diner award this week goes to Zak for taking time out of his own break to help clear up in the dining hall. Great work!

Maths and English

This week in maths the children have been learning about number and place value, we have learnt about: comparing numbers using < and >; roman numerals, negative numbers rounding to the nearest 10, 100, 1000 and 100,000; and we have put all of our place value skills into practice by solving problems. Place value is a key aspect to maths which will support children with their maths skills throughout the year.

This week we have been looking at the works of Roger McGough and Michael Rosen this week. We have compared the poets and then went on to plan and write our own free verse poems, we were very impressed with the imagination within our class.

Jump Session

Next week we have a visitor from 'Jump' to do a workshop for our RE lesson:
'Rules for Living – The 10 Commandments'

Home Learning

We are delighted with the efforts and talent being shown in our home learning books. The children have really taken the tasks on board and are so proud of their efforts – as are we!
Keep up the good work Dahl class!

IMPORTANT!

Please ensure you have filled in the 'Annual Parental Consent Form' and returned it by Wednesday 28th September. We are looking to go on a local trip to sketch a Tudor house in Harpenden on Thursday 29th.

Reading books

Please continue to read with your children at home as much as possible. Please help your child to remember that they must bring their reading book to school every day. We will aim to change the children's reading book once every week but only if we are confident that the children have a secure understanding of the content of their current book.

Topic

Thank you to the people who have bought in cardboard boxes, we are still on the lookout for plenty of thick cardboard boxes for designing and building our own Tudor houses. In topic this week we have been looking at the life of King Henry III and started to make 'This is your Life' books of him, they are looking great!

School Photos

Next Friday we are having our school photos so please make sure your uniform is smart and you are looking like your beautiful selves.

Wet weather

Please can we remind parents to ensure that wet weather clothing is kept in school. Children will be expected to go outside in light rain during break and lunchtimes and we fear that the end of the summer sun is imminent ☺
