- World Book Day is Thursday March 2nd 2017.

Forest Schools

The class have been really enjoying Forest Schools this half term and Shaun has been able to provide lots of exciting outdoor learning opportunities. The children have learnt about Roman Numerals and have also had the chance to make Roman oil lamps.

Please can we remind you that since the weather is very cold, could all children make sure that they have a waterproof coat and warm clothing including gloves and a hat. It may even be a good idea for them to wear an extra pair of socks as we had some very cold toes today...including mine!

Year 3 Newsletter Friday 20th January

Learning this week

During both English and Guided Reading sessions, we have been discussing words and phrases that capture the imagination. The aim of doing this is to help the children to build up a bank of exciting vocabulary that they can then use in their writing.

In maths, we have moved onto digital time and will be continuing with this next week. We have told the children to practise telling the time at every opportunity so apologies if they are telling you what time it is every 5 minutes!

In science, we have been learning about how light is reflected. The class enjoyed experimenting with reflecting light from mirrors and compared reflecting light from both dull and shiny surfaces.

Pre-Learning

Children are going to be using their researching skills to answer questions and find out information about the Romans. If you could talk to your children about how they could research different subjects eg typing in key words into search engines or using the index of books to find key words it would be very much appreciated.

World Book Day

Just to let you know that World Book Day is approaching on Thursday 2nd March. To celebrate their love of reading, the children will be asked to dress up as their favourite character from a book. We are looking forward to seeing them in costume!

The 2 Steves

Thank you to all the children who took part in the story mission to write a story opening based on one of the books by the 2 Steves. We were so impressed with the effort that was put into the writing and all of the children's work was a pleasure to read.
