Learning this week

In maths this week the children have been learning about Place Value. They have been thinking about the value of each digit in a number and have been using this knowledge to put a set of numbers in order. They have then gone on to have a go at explaining how they know that the order was correct using key language to support them.

In English the children have been introduced to the story 'A Stone Age Boy'. They have been able to sequence the story by creating a story map and have been practicing re-telling the story orally as a class.

We have also been very busy becoming geologists this week in science when investigating different rocks and also archaeologists whilst digging for clues in sand.

A Time to Shine

NEXT WEEK'S TIME TO SHINE IS FOR:

Potter class: Squirrels

Kipling class: Mowgli group.

Reading books

Please can you make sure that your child brings their reading book to school every day. When you read with your child at home please remember to make a note in their reading diary.

Also when reading at home don't feel that you have to read their school reading book EVERY night. If your child is tired would prefer to read a different book or a magazine one night that's fine...all reading is encouraged!

Parent Meeting

Thank you to everyone that was able to attend the year 3 Parent meeting on Tuesday afternoon. It was lovely to meet you all. If you were unable to attend the power point that we used during the meeting will be put on the school website.

During the meeting the question was raised about whether or not year 3 were going to be learning to play the cornets this year. After checking with the senior leadership team we have found out that the Cornet teacher is not available to come in at a suitable time and therefore no cornet lessons will be taking place.
